

Job Opportunity

Video Director (Part-Time)
FPC Houston | fpchouston.org

FPC Houston is seeking an experienced video director to help complete our Sunday morning production team. In this role, you'll collaborate with our media producer, camera operators and audio team to deliver an exceptional online worship experience, streamed across three platforms. Ideal candidate will have experience with contemporary worship or similar productions.

Key Areas of Responsibility:

- Direct the creative aspects of a live worship service or other productions collaborating with the media producer and camera operators.
- Prepare for upcoming services by reviewing emailed worship plans and/or attending meetings as needed.
- Participate in Sunday morning rehearsals and prepare equipment and staff for start of worship
- Assist with installation and maintenance of video equipment as needed
- Make recommendations related to lighting, graphics, and sound to ensure an optimal live stream worship experience
- Help create an environment for all volunteers; remaining upbeat, energetic and encouraging, setting the right atmosphere
- Other directing and video duties as assigned

Requirements

- Proficiency in live video directing/producing in a multi-camera (2 years preferred)
- Proficiency in shot composition, storytelling and camera movement
- Creative
- Detail-oriented with a commitment to excellence
- Ability to problem solve and identify issues before they start
- Thrives in a team environment, with excellent communication interpersonal skills

- Ability to work in high pressure situations
- Editing experience a plus
- Relevant degree preferred

The Ideal candidate...

- Has served in a church environment (or other service-oriented and/or non-profit organization)
- Has knowledge of contemporary worship practices and styles