Dear FPC Family -

As we begin 2019, I am excited to also begin our next sermon series entitled 20 Questions: Exploring Common Questions About Faith and Christianity.

We hope you will join us over the next six months as we use this series to tackle some of the questions that challenge our faith and prepare each of us to better share the Gospel with our neighbors across the city and around the world. The series includes questions identified and submitted by YOU, the friends and family of FPC and deeper exploration will be incorporated into Small Group studies during this time.

We kickoff this Sunday with the following question:

Does Prayer Really Work?

*How can I know that prayer really works? Why would God not answer my prayers – especially if I have prayed for an outcome that would obviously glorify God? If we commit ourselves to prayer and service – what can we actually expect from God, if anything?
Can we truly expect God to intervene in our lives?*

To see a detailed description of the topics that will be covered during 20 Questions, visit fpchouston.org/20Questions. I pray this will be a meaningful time for us individually and as a church family.

Many blessings for the new year!
